Sir:

The Notification of Missing Requirements requests clarification regarding the correct name of the sixth inventor. The name of the sixth inventor is different on the Declaration than on the International Application. No fee is due.

The correct name of the sixth inventor is "Yoshinori TANAKA". Mr. Tanaka's name appears correctly on the Declaration which was submitted with the National Phase Application to the USPTO on May 9, 2005. The name which appears on the International Application is an incorrect spelling. The incorrect spelling occurred when an error was made when Applicant attempted to write Mr. Tanaka's Japanese name using English characters.

Respectfully submitted,

Lawrence E. Ashery, Reg. No. 34,515
